

PL/SQL Stored Procedure Practice Questions (DML Operations)

A. UPDATE Procedures (1–25)

1. Increase salary by a given amount.
2. Decrease salary by a given amount.
3. Change employee job.
4. Update department number.
5. Update commission.
6. Update manager.
7. Update email ID.
8. Update hire date.
9. Change employee name.
10. Set commission to NULL.
11. Increase salary by percentage.
12. Decrease salary by percentage.
13. Give ■5000 increment to all employees.
14. Give increment to employees of a particular department.
15. Give increment only to CLERKS.
16. Give increment only to MANAGERS.
17. Give commission to SALESMAN only.
18. Transfer all employees from Dept 10 to Dept 20.
19. Change all CLERKS to ANALYST.
20. Change all MANAGERS to PRESIDENT.
21. Update salary only if salary is below 3000.
22. Increase salary if employee has no commission.
23. Update manager for all employees of Dept 20.
24. Give 10% increment and change job to SENIOR ANALYST.
25. Update salary and return updated salary using OUT parameter.

B. INSERT Procedures (26–40)

26. Insert one employee.
27. Insert employee with default commission.
28. Insert employee with hiredate as SYSDATE.
29. Insert employee with NULL manager.
30. Insert employee with email ID.
31. Insert employee with only mandatory columns.
32. Insert five employees by calling procedure five times.

33. Insert employee and return Empno.
34. Insert employee and return employee name.
35. Insert employee and display 'Employee Added'.
36. Insert employee only if Empno does not exist.
37. Insert employee into Dept 20.
38. Insert employee with salary 3000.
39. Insert employee with salary and commission.
40. Insert employee and return total employees.

C. DELETE Procedures (41–55)

41. Delete employee by Empno.
42. Delete employee by Name.
43. Delete employees of Dept 10.
44. Delete employees having salary below 2000.
45. Delete employees having NULL commission.
46. Delete all CLERKS.
47. Delete all ANALYSTs.
48. Delete employees hired before 1982.
49. Delete employee and display deleted salary.
50. Delete employee and return deleted name.
51. Delete employee only if salary < 3000.
52. Delete all employees except PRESIDENT.
53. Delete employees whose manager is NULL.
54. Delete employees of Dept 30.
55. Delete employee using OUT parameter.

D. Combined DML Procedures (56–65)

56. Promote employee (change job + increase salary).
57. Transfer employee + increase salary.
58. Update manager + department.
59. Update salary + commission.
60. Insert employee and immediately increase salary.
61. Delete employee after displaying salary.
62. Insert employee then update department.
63. Update email and manager together.
64. Change department and commission.
65. Promote all CLERKS to ANALYST and increase salary.

E. OUT Parameter Practice (66–75)

- 66. Return updated salary.
- 67. Return updated department.
- 68. Return updated commission.
- 69. Return updated job.
- 70. Return employee name after update.
- 71. Return manager after update.
- 72. Return salary after insertion.
- 73. Return deleted employee name.
- 74. Return deleted employee salary.
- 75. Return complete employee details using multiple OUT parameters.

Challenge Questions (76–85)

- 76. Increase salary by ■1000 if salary < 3000, otherwise by ■500.
- 77. If employee belongs to Dept 10 transfer to Dept 20, otherwise Dept 30.
- 78. Give 15% increment only to employees whose commission is NULL.
- 79. Promote every CLERK to ANALYST and increase salary by 25%.
- 80. Delete all employees whose salary is below the department average.
- 81. Insert employee only if department exists.
- 82. Increase salary of employees working under a particular manager.
- 83. Update salary of employees hired after a given date.
- 84. Change all email domains from @yahoo.com to @gmail.com.
- 85. Transfer all employees from one department to another and return the number of rows updated.